

I have not had nearly as many annoying calls since I signed up for the no call list. It is so aggravating to be trying to work on farm books or painting, whatever the job, only to be called by someone you do not wish to speak with. Leave the no call thing alone and let people have some peace in their own home.

Brenda Roahrig